4.0 Questions

Q: The RFQ states that deliverables will be in Microstation format. We typically provide plans to SAWS in AutoCAD format for engineering. Is AutoCAD acceptable for this survey contract?

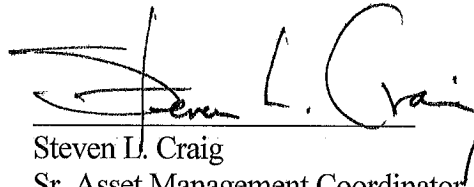

A: SAWS will accept documents in Microstation format. Consultants can use AutoCAD for their designs; however, once they get ready to submit the files to SAWS, they must submit the Microstation files as well.

Q: On page 8, under Section C, number 4, the last bullet in the list of information required for past projects reads "Prior experience as an expert witness." Can you please clarify what information is needed to meet that requirement?

A: To meet this requirement there needs to be someone in the consultant's firm that is familiar with the survey work performed on the parcel in question and has the knowledge, experience, and expertise to act as an expert witness, (most likely at a condemnation hearing).

Q: We have insurance specified in the RFQ. But the RFQ under Exhibit "A" appears to be qualifications under contract not for a request of qualifications. Does a simple ACORD form not made out to SAWS, showing insurance qualify for the RFQ?

A: Please have your insurance Agent complete a Certificate of Liability Insurance providing evidence of the lines of insurance coverage in your current insurance program but, place in the Certificate Holder section of the Certificate the words: For SAWS RFQ response only.
